President Corner

A Caring Tradition

By Anna Popovich

As Thanksgiving approaches we sit back and think of all the things we can be thankful and grateful for ... and especially my faith in God which guides me each day.

Some of the things I'm grateful for are the men and women serving our country ... and family and friends who are always there for you. This always brings us back to our Italian heritage whether it was to help raise a child who lost a parent or having dinner together on Sundays.

In the years I've been with the Italian Club, I've found the caring tradition and willingness to help one another very gratifying. We love being together that's why our meetings are well attended.

During this holiday season I wish you a healthy and Happy Thanksgiving.

Seattle Arts & Lectures brings Isabella Rossellini to Seattle on November 18 - 7:30 pm - Benaroya Hall

Whether you know her as the daughter of actress Ingrid Bergman and director Roberto Rossellini, the face of Lancôme cosmetics, the nightclub singer in Blue Velvet or Alec Baldwin's ex-wife on 30 Rock, you know Isabella Rossellini excels at whatever role she sets herself to—no matter how bizarre. Take for example her latest endeavor, a series of short films she has written/directed/starred in, which use hand-made paper sets and costumes to elucidate the quirky reproductive habits of insects and marine animals. She'll discuss the series, her family, and her career at Benaroya Hall.

Tickets are available through Seattle Arts & Lectures' website, www.lectures.org/rossellini.html, and by phone at 206.621.2230.

Coming Soon - November 17-21! The New Italian Cinema Festival

By Mike James, President, Seattle-Perugia Sister City Association

Save those dates on your calendar now, get your Film Festival tickets early, and remember, at the Festival we'll be selling raffle tickets for a roundtrip (for 2) to Perugia with a seven night hotel stay. Only $5 a ticket! We'll have the tickets available all through the Film Festival. The drawing for the prize will take place on the last night of the Film Festival, November 21.

We've worked hard, with Seattle International Film Festival, New Italian Cinema Events (N.I.C.E.) of Florence, Pagliacci, and many others, to bring this annual festival of new Italian films to Seattle (N.I.C.E.) also presents the festival in NYC and San Francisco). Let's show that Seattle will support this important cultural and film event, and make it an annual occasion here! Order your tickets now!

For more information and ticket information, check our Seattle-Perugia web site: www.seattle-perugia.org or call Mike James at 206-669-5791.

Columbus Day By Tina Conforti, il Ficcanaso field reporter

Although Columbus Day is a federal holiday with postal service and federal government offices closed, only certain states recognize Columbus Day with special activities.

Many states with a large Italian population recognize Columbus Day with parades and school closings.

In Chicago, Columbus Day was observed on October 12, 2009 with a mass and wreath laying ceremony in Arrico Park followed by a grand parade of 140 floats through the heart of the city from Balbo to Monroe Street. Many local political figures, Italian organizations, school marching bands, and a large constituency of Italian-Americans march in the parade. This year, the parade marshals included Ernest Borgnine and Larry Manetti of "Magnum P.I." fame. A young woman of Italian heritage is selected to be the Queen of the Columbus Day Parade along with a court. The parade is broadcast on the local ABC station. It is a wonderful tradition.

I often think how it would be grand if the Italian-Americans and Italian-American organizations from Washington State could organize a parade or other event to locally commemorate Columbus Day. Well, that would be nice!

Time flies, can't believe it's already November and another issue of the il Ficcanaso is ready to go to press. So what have I heard and what has been reported for publishing?

Heard these, so thought I would start with a little bit of humor, "self-delusion is pulling in your stomach when you step on the scale" yep, I've done that. One more? "When did my wild oats turn to prunes and all bran?" Enough? No Then one more: "if god wanted me to touch my toes, he would have put them on my knees." Now down to some news re our members.

Congratulations to Joe and Loretta Starkovich on their golden wedding anniversary. The celebration was held at the Maple Wood Golf Club in Renton on Saturday, October 17. We wish many more years of loving and sharing happiness Joe and Loretta. God bless you both.

Received an email from Carole Bishop thanking the Halloween committee for "the wonderful party" she noted her granddaughters had a ball. For our column she informed us that she would be traveling to San Antonio to spend time with her sister and brother-in-law, playing a lot of tennis, a little golf and devouring a lot of that great Tex/Mex food. Enjoy Carole.

Happy to see Ron Roletto at the Halloween party. He said his trip with his cousins Mona and Al Nelson was great. Mona, Stella Oakes' daughter, had never been to the south west and enjoyed all the sights and history of the area. They didn't miss a thing.

Good news: Congratulations to Joe Sargent and Deborah Quien on their engagement. Joe popped the question at The Canlis with a romantic dinner and a picture of the ring. Good going sweeties, lots of love and happiness. I want to be the flower girl.

I will be traveling to San Francisco the first part of November, no; I didn't leave my heart there, going down for a meeting and a little playing.

Our ex officio chaplain, the very rev. Paul Magnano traveled to San Francisco visiting family and friends. He is a very busy person, we appreciate the time he shares with our Italian Club activities.

The Past Presidents and Committee Chairpersons Luncheon will be held on Wednesday November 18. All members and friends are invited. Cost is $23.00. Past presidents will be called, a signup sheet was passed around at our last meeting and will be sent around again at our November 10 meeting. Reservations are a must by Friday, November 11. A reservation made is a reservation paid. The luncheon will be held at Courtyard, Marriott ... free parking, an elevator to the lobby. Social time begins at 11:30 a.m. and lunch is served at noon. Door prize donations appreciated.

Gov. Rosellini's 100th birthday celebration has been moved to January 2010. He's in good spirits and looking forward to the big day.

Many of our members and their families have been under the weather: Barbara Peretti with severe laryngitis. Also in our prayers and thoughts, Lena Boitano, Madeleine Borda, Carmen and Margaret Murray, Gene and Inky Merlino, Reita Romei, Vito Chiecchi, Verna Colella, Earl Hoffa, Dorothy and Dick Whitney's daughter. To all, take care and stay healthy.

Congratulations to Nick and Ginny Grossi on the birth of their seventh grandchild, William. Born on October 9 ... Proud parents are Chris and Barrie Grossi.

If you have any news, please call or email me. We're happy to share it with our members.

Happy Thanksgiving to you and yours.

Inspirational wisdom: "Only Robinson Crusoe could have everything done by Friday." And on that note, I'll say bye, see you at the meeting.

Stay happy and healthy.

Children's Halloween Party A Howling Success

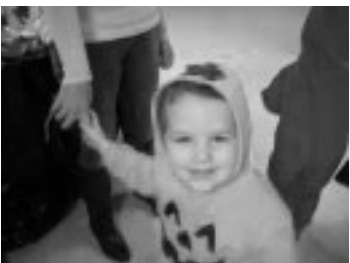

By Nancy Grossi

The Halloween party was a Howling success. Despite a lower than expected turn-out the people who did attend loved it. The decorations, food and games were boo-tifully wonderful. And it could not have been accomplished without the help of several people in our club. So a monsterously huge thank you goes out to Carolyn Jackson, Joe Grossi, Ron Roletto, Michael Troiani, Orly and Velva Salterelli, Nick and Ginny Grossi, Ramona Durham and the co-chair Andrea Petrone.

A new sense of party style has been set by Mrs. Petrone. She has a great flair with her hauntingly mystical decorations and fun food choices. If you did not come this year mark your calendars for next year because you will not want to miss it ... We dare you!
