President Corner By Anna Popovich

In Their Own Words

Below is the third in our series allowing those active members of our club, who have been with us 35 years or longer, to tell their stories in a new column called In Their Own Words.

In Their Own Words

50 Years

By Carolyn Zechel Jackson

When Anna asked if I would write some WORDS for this special column I said sure, why not? Now I'm having a few second thoughts.

WORDS: I looked in the dictionary to see what Webster had to say about the word, words, and found, "the smallest meaningful unit of a language, a brief remark (when have I ever been brief?), a message."

Following Nick Grossi and Tino Lazzaretti is a very hard act to follow. Here goes:

I really didn't have a big desire to join the Italian Club, I had a sweet Scotch Irish husband that wanted to be a member, because his buddies, Charles Carroll and Denny Vena, just to name a few belonged. Those were the years when a non Italian male was not able to join unless their Italian wife joined the Ladies Auxiliary. So in 1960, that's 50 years ago, I was initiated as a member of the Ladies' Auxiliary Italian Club. Josephine DiMartino was President, and sorry to say I do not remember where we were meeting.

I was truly impressed with all the wonderful projects and programs being accomplished by our presidents. The purpose of the organization was always first and foremost in their thoughts and hearts.

I urge all our members to review Article 2, PURPOSES of our Bylaws (page 26). It gives you a warm feeling to know that we are accomplishing what our founders in 1920 hoped we could and would do, "To promote, develop and further establish among the people of the United States respect for Italians and those of Italian derivation and an

Italian American Sports Hall Of Fame Founder Is Festa Luncheon Speaker

In 1977, George Randazzo founded the Italian American Boxing Hall of Fame as a way to raise money for a struggling local Catholic youth program. Randazzo collected boxing photos and memorabilia, a hobby that inspired him to organize a fundraising dinner that brought together a list of boxing greats and celebrities. The dinner honored twenty-three former Italian American boxing world champions, including Rocky Graziano, Jake LaMotta, Sammy Angott, Willie Pep, and posthumously Rocky Marciano, Primo Carnera and Tony Canzoneri.

The results were so overwhelming that a friend and local businessman, Don Ponte, encouraged Randazzo to start a Hall of Fame to honor all Italian American athletes. One year later, the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame was founded as a non-profit, educational institution.

The first induction ceremony and banquet was a star-studded event, as the Hall of Fame honored Lou Ambers, Eddie Arcaro, Charlie Trippi, Gino Marchetti, Dom DiMaggio and "The Yankee Clipper," Joe DiMaggio. Mrs. Vince Lombardi also accepted the posthumous induction of her late husband, Coach Vince Lombardi.

Carolyn Jackson

appreciation for Italian arts, culture and science."

We were founded on April 26, 1920, yes, this is our 90th year. How many organizations and people have been reached in those 90 years and received assistance from the Italian Club to lighten their endeavors to better the World. I feel so humble AND proud to be a part of this wonderful giving organization.

Our ladies were organized in 1926 ... the year I was born. We disbanded during the war years 1941-48 and reorganized in 1948 with Nellie Ive as the president.

I served as president in 1974, 75 and 76. Yes three years. I thank all the members that put up with me those three years. It was an education and fun. I thank the male presidents that served at the same time, (1974, Lou Borda and Gene Merlino in 1975 & 1976), for their cooperation and support. I also had the pleasure to serve as secretary and treasurer.

I worked in a laboratory for 42 years. My Jack passed away in 1986. We have a son and a Daughter, two grandchildren and three sweet wonderful great grandchildren. AMEN.

It's a joy to see the many new members that are joining. Get involved. Your willingness and enthusiasm is needed. Attend meetings; say yes when asked to serve on a committee. Truly it is an education and FUN.

I know I haven't been brief, but I hope I had a message and my WORDS meaningful.

I am proud to be a member of the Italian Club of Seattle and I thank each of you for your sincere friendship and accepting me these 50 years with Protection and Love.

Winners by Nick Grossi

We have a winner! At the June meeting the name of Ginny Grossi was drawn for the Progressive Prize.

She was present and received $150.00. Congratulations, Ginny. The September prize will be $25.00. Two birthday prizes were drawn for June (Marty Nigrelle) and July (Dorothy Whitney).

The winners for the June raffle were: Nick Grossi, Diana Sciola, Fran Albanese, Gemma DiJulio, Kimberly Carrosino, Barbara Peretti, Helen Carrosino, Jane DiJulio, Mike Carrosino, Dick Whitney, Monte Marchetti, Angela Wright, Ed DeRocco and Mike Lazzaretti. Monte Marchetti also won a free entry to the golf tournament.

Sausage Booth Help!

Anna Popovich has announced that there are still openings in her schedule for workers in the sausage booth for Festa.

She would like to fill these before Festa begins. Please call her and sign up as soon as you can for either Saturday or Sunday or both. Her phone number is 206-453-4002.

Opening in Italian Immersion Program By Gail Longo

I have three spaces available in Cinquegraneli Montessori for children 2.5 to 5 years of age. Our program is not an Italian immersion program, but we do support the language and culture of Italy, and encourage the children to speak with other children in Italian. I am always looking for families interested in continuing the language with children.

We will have 10 children with two teachers who are Montessori trained. Nature, art and drama are a part of the learning experience. We will teach math, geography, etc. The program is scheduled from 9 to 1 pm 4 days a week, Tuesday through Friday. We are located in a house on Sunset Hill. Our parent-night open house will be 6:30 until 8:00 pm. on September 7, 2010. I can be reached at 206-789-2942.

July and August are now history. Hope it was full of fun, family and great memories.

Now let's get in the swing of September. It's going to be a busy one, mark your calendars and make an effort to attend as many of the events as possible.

It seems just like yesterday I was sitting here and wondering what news I had to pass on to you.

Well, here I am again, sitting in the same chair and wondering the same thing, "What has happened that we can share with our members?" If you share, we share.

In our June column we mentioned the coming events. Our Meeting, the June lunch, with our guest speaker, Mr. Dominic J Pulera, author of Green, White and Red, the Italian Success Story. Mr. Pulera presentation was enjoyed by all that attended.

Italian Club Day at the Races was a fun day. Our handicappers (is that what they're called) were generous with their expertise. Although my bill fold was a little lighter when I left the track, but had a good time.

Then, take me out to the ball game. We Italians and friends did ourselves proud at the Italian night at the Safeco Field. The Mariners didn't win, but we were all winners just being with our friends and cheering.

The all Italian Picnic was held on the 15th of August. There was a record crowd and record heat. About 750 adults and 97 children attended. A big thank you to Dale Pallela and his terrific committee for their loyalty and work that make this annual picnic such a success.

Many of our Members traveled south for the Portland Festa Italiana celebration the end of August.

I want to thank Bill Picchena for keeping us posted of his goings and comings. In June, Bill and his daughters and grandchildren were on a Disney cruise, traveling the north Europe countries. Then Bill and his daughter and grandchildren traveled to Boston for the 4th of July holiday. What a wonderful 4th of July celebration they attended. They enjoyed the fireworks, with the music being orchestrated by the Boston Philharmonic. My goodness, here it's almost the end of August and I haven't heard what or where Bill landed. Good going Bill. Many more happy trips.

Did YOU do or go somewhere special you would like to share with us?

We wish a happy birthday to our members that celebrated their birthdays in July, August and September. May your troubles be less, may your blessings be more and may nothing but happiness come through your door.

Congratulations and best wishes to Martin Nigrelle and Kacy Cole on their recent engagement.

I didn't have Kacy's name before, so now it's official ... date is pending for the big day, lots of love and much happiness Kacy and Marty.

Our heartfelt condolences, sympathy and prayers to the Lizzeretti family, on the passing of our very dear friend, Tino. He was a treasure loved and respected by all. In the June Issue of il Ficcanaso Tino was the guest contributor on the front page article ... In Their Own Words ... it's worth rereading. That was Tino, ready and willing to give and support. He was always involved.

Our prayers and sympathy to Mary Hoffa and family, on the passing her husband, Earl.

To John Brondello and family on the passing of his dear mother Diane ... prayers and sympathy.

Saw in the paper a former member of the Ladies' Italian Club passed away ... prayers and sympathy to the family of Georgia Covello Jink.

To all our dearly departed, may they rest in peace.

Orlie and Velva Saltarelli have had their share of health problems, Velva tells us things are getting better and they are looking forward to attending the meetings.

Great to see Lou and Helen Carrosino out and about.

Had a call from Margaret Murray, she and her Mother, Carmen send their best wishes. They miss seeing us but we are in their thoughts.

The Grossi family has been spending some time over at Lake Chelan.

Welcome home Michael Troiani. Glad you had a great time in Italy visiting family and making new friends

It was great to receive an email response from Dorothy and Dick Whitney ... it was sent from Austria. They were having a great time and on their way back to Italy for more visiting and sightseeing. They should be home by the time we receive this.

Gino and Joanne Marchese's granddaughter, Gianna took first place, in her division, at the Magnolia Seafair Talent Show. She sang Dancing in the Streets. She was a big hit. If that wasn't enough to make parents, grandparents and aunt proud, Gianna, willingly had 10 inches of her hair cut and donated it to Locks of Love. The locks are donated to children undergoing chemo who have lost their hair. God bless you Gianna.

Then their Daughter, Lisa Marchese, an Attorney, who was a speaker at one of our luncheons, was listed in the June 2010 publication of Washington Super Lawyers. Lisa was honored as one of the Top 50 Women Washington Super Lawyers 2010. Good going Lisa.

We congratulate our honorary life member, the Very Rev. Paul Magnano on his appointment as pastor of the new parish in downtown Seattle, Christ Our Hope Parish. The Archbishop established Christ the Hope Parish as a "personal parish." I know, what does that mean? It means it has no boundaries. The parish is based in the archdioceses owned building, The Josephinum, a 14-Story, 222-unit building for low-income resident located at 1902 2nd. Ave.,

Speaking of Fr. Magnano, Father will be the celebrant of the Festa Italiana Mass on Saturday September 11 at 5PM at Our Lady of Mt Virgin Church. A reception will follow in the Church Hall. If you attended last year, you know you're in for great spiritual and social uplift.

Well, "that's all folks" my well has run dry. Add-ons will be announced at the meeting. Keep safe, happy and healthy.

You know that old saying, "age is mind over matter, if you don't mind, it doesn't matter.

Bye for now, God bless you all,

Carolyn

Seattle Mariners' Italian Heritage Night 2010 By Martin Nigrelle (Baseball Night Chair)

Thanks go to the Mariners for hosting the fourth annual Mariner's Italian Heritage night on Tuesday July 20.

Some of the highlights included:

- 346 attendees, an increase of just six more than the previous year. The Italian Club of Seattle sold 51 seats.
- Scarves for all attendees featuring the colors of the Italian flag
- The weather was nice enough to keep the stadium roof open the whole game
- Multiple "crowd shots" of the group on the big screen

The Mariners have already expressed interest in hosting a fifth Italian Heritage night, their announcer Ric Rizz is an Italian American who has expressed interest in making Italian Heritage night a much bigger event.

Details for the 2011 Italian Heritage night will be made available here in the club newsletter later in the new year.

- Award Certificates will be presented to the recipients @ the September General Meeting
- The recipients will be asked to read the letters that accompanied their application at the meeting

October 2010

- Scholarship checks will be mailed to the appropriate schools in the name of the recipients

Information regarding the scholarships for the 2011-2012 school year will be published in the January edition of the club newsletter.

Halloween Party Announced for October 30th

Andrea Petrone, chair of this year's Halloween Party, has announced that the date will be Saturday,

October 30th, the day before Halloween. Location will once again be the Mt. Virgin School Hall. "This gives everyone a chance to stretch the festivities over two days," she announced, "and get more than one use out of the costume." Once again, the event will feature "Toss the spider," "Pin the Stem on the Pumpkin", and "Go Fish" for scary treats. Each game will have a winner that goes home with a special prize, and everyone is encouraged to bring a small pumpkin so that can be decorated. There will also be refreshments for young and old alike. Price of admission is free and grandchildren of members are welcome.

The 2010 Festa Italiana

Festa Italiana is actually a series of events held in late September which culminates in a major Italian Festival at Seattle Center. For the past 21 years Festa Italiana has celebrated the cultural roots of Italians and Italian-Americans by presenting and promoting the arts, the food and the spirit that are uniquely Italian.

Come join us in the beautiful Fisher Pavilion and the surrounding grounds and buildings at Seattle Center as once again we present the Taste of Italy, Friday, September 24, and the 23rd Annual Italian Festival, September 25 & 26, 2010.

Our highlights include a Celebrity Chef headlining a great schedule of cooking demos, a free all-ages concert starring Tony La Stella on Saturday, and two performances daily of Sicilian puppetry by the Carter Family Marionettes. By popular demand, the Food Court has been expanded as well.

As always, again we will offer a wide array of cultural and educational opportunities in which to participate and learn. Year after year, however, our main attractions continue to be food, entertainment, and fun for the entire family!
